Why a memorial?

There will be moments when you wish to remember quietly and the purchase of a memorial, of your choice, can provide a place to visit and remember. Indeed their value in the grieving process is accepted by professionals who help the bereaved. A commemorative memorial can pay tribute to the departed or fill the need to perform one last act of giving and make a record for future generations.

The Board provide a wide variety of forms of commemoration and one popular form is a Slate Memorial Plaque on the Cloister Walk in the Gardens of Remembrance.
